

Respect: We value others and treat them equitably and with dignity.

Communication: We listen to all stakeholders and foster a free exchange of information to promote transparency and mutual understanding.

Engagement: We actively participate in the organization, our work, our culture, and community for the success of the organization and team.

Supportive Work Environment: We sustain a positive work environment where emotional, physical, and mental well-being are valued to assist one another in our roles.

Service Excellence: We provide a level of service that fulfills customer and organizational expectations by holding ourselves and one another accountable.